SHOW

"I've been a vendor at the Boone Home and Garden Show for years! It's a great kick off to the Spring selling season. The amount of advertising for the show that the Chamber provides, draws in good crowds and makes the show a great advertising value. The contacts that I make at the show are very personal...and very targeted."

-Tim Reece
R&W Power

"With the Boone Home & Garden Show being smaller than other area Home & Garden Shows it makes for a less overwhelming and intimidating atmosphere. Over the many years I have attended the show I really enjoy the one on one interactions I get with those attending. I have always had a positive experience working with the Home & Garden Show Committee and Chamber staff. This is an event I look forward to each and every year!"

-Ben Hawcott
Hawcott Lawn Service

"As a committee member I hear many positive comments about the Boone Home & Garden Show. Whether it be a new vendor or one who has participated from year to year, they feel good with the quality of leads they receive for our size of show. It's not often a town our size offers this type of show. I feel it is a good way to keep business local while offering your goods and services."
